Value of Woman in Islam

This could not be said more beautifully

"Be care full if you make a woman Cry
because Allah Counts Her Tears"

"A woman came out from man's Rib. Not from his feet to be walked on, Not from his head to be superior over but from his side to be equal Under the Arm to be Protected, next to the heart to be loved"

Islam a peaceful religion?... Women valued by Islam?...

Bhutto was assasinated today in Pakistan & it will be interesting to see if "peaceful Islam" worldwide will finally begin to do something about it's radical Islam sects, instead of allowing that radical agenda to continue & grow...

If the Koran speaks of peace, why don't Islamic leaders rally the majority and speak in one voice against radicals?

If "peaceful Islam" wants the rest of the world to see it as TRULY peaceful and eliminate growing "racial profiling," they need to forcefully speak out against this growing problem.

I hope with all my heart that "peaceful Islam" overcomes radical Islam, but it doesn't look like it's happening...
