I Think all Colleges of Pakistan are best.....booo but its up to the student how to study with full concentration and efforts The College in which i read...i never like it.....do not know bcz of its uniform i hate it.....but i really found best teachers where ever i go in my humblest of opinion, college itself can not be best or worst as they are made up of bricks, it is the faculty or the teachers present in that college that brings fame or noteriety to that institution. they are the personality builders of the students, and thereby the students do acts that bring fame to the colleges in the consequence of such tutions!

no i guess colleges totally depend on their teachers and administration ... if they are good then college is good ;)
