our young generation always face one problem...that they love someone and.....bla bla bla....

why is it so???? your heart and mind is so cheap??? that you give it to some one?? unknown??? unauthorised???? silly isnt it???

Muhammad Bin Qasim till at the age of 18 never did or thought like that bcz of his purity bcz of his nobleness...Indian people started worshipping him.....they considered him as OWTAR as Guro....

every young child always think like that fallen in love why????? i am not saying i am out of it me too??

but these are beyond the teaching of Islam you must all have control over you Will power
Thanks
