When you win i will proudly tell the people that is my friend but when u lose i will sit by your side hold your hand and say Hey I'm your friend

nobody is real friend in this world ...
stay away frm them ...
stop making frnds ...
(good suggestion for you)

well it was only a Quotation..I ONLY said i will always encourage those who are facing down fall...you are right for some extend stop making friends...but a lonely person is nothing.. it is also proven...only your family members are best friends and closer to you..but in this society you all must have social circle..
i will also suggest only have Allah as your friend. he never leave u alone

I didn't mean that ...
I was not asking you not to visit this site to make frnds you can do watever you want to but i was just giving you idea of real life ... in real life there are nothing called real friends ... but u can easily find .. mean, selfish, dishonest, deceitful, untruthful ppl all well Its true.....but I have read Allha Subhana tala said the reflection of life is clear as Water...I believe that if i am not mean,selfish,dishonest, then hopefully i would also get good results a bad person is always bad but when u are always doing good with him then one day he would also turn good to you...it does not mean you would start leaving the people in that context whole world is Cruel,Corrupt, Political SHOULD I LEAVE THE WORLD?? i hate the World, each and every person on this Planet earth for 25 years?? but i have not granted an option to leave such fake people...our Prophet (PBUH) turned the Hell into Heaven.....anyway.....you know better then me...
